M uch of his life was spent in prison

A lmost twenty seven years

N ever losing hope in his heart.

D etermined to achieve

E qual rights for every African citizen.

L et us remember that he became

A frica’s first black President.

James